

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

Please consider applying or renewing online at nava.org/membership

Any individual or organization interested in vexillology and agreeing to subscribe to NAVA's Bylaws is welcome to join NAVA. Memberships are on a calendar-year basis.

MEMBERSHIP CATEGORIES

Active membership is open to any individual 18 or older. Active members may attend meetings, vote on matters submitted to the membership, hold appointed offices, and serve on most committees and receive all publications (Raven: A Journal of Vexillology; Flag Research Quarterly; NAVA News; and Semaphore e-bulletin) without additional cost. Active members residing in Canada and the United States may hold elected office and serve on the nominating committee. Active members are eligible for one free non-commercial exhibit table at the annual meeting. Dues are US$40 annually.

Student active membership: For full-time undergraduate and graduate students over 17, including those who have finished coursework and are working on qualifying or comprehensive examinations, theses, or dissertations, dues are US$20 annually.

Associate membership is open only to individuals under 18 and spouses of active members. Associate members have all the privileges of active members except voting and holding elective office. Dues are US$20 annually.

Organizational membership is open to any non-profit or for-profit organization. Organizational members have all the privileges of active members except holding office. They receive preferred rates on exhibit space at the annual meeting, and a listing on NAVA.org. An organizational member may designate an individual to represent the organization in NAVA governance. Dues are US$60 annually.

Subscription: Any school, library, or other institution may subscribe to NAVA's publications for US$40 annually.
