

PRELIMINARY AGENDA FOR THE NAVA CONFERENCE, WHITE PLAINS 18-19 NOVEMBER

Saturday

10 am Registration. Exhibitions (NAVA flag proposals, flags of the Middle Ages, photographs of the last NAVA Conference and the International Congress of Vexillology in Zurich, and a selection of flags from the largest private collection of flags in the world, amassed by Rev. John J. Hurley)

10:30 Opening of the Conference (including welcome, roll call, notes, and report of the NAVA Flag and Seal Committee)

Political Terminology in Vexillology
A report on political geography and vexillology by Ashley Talbot, Executive Editor, Hammond Inc.

12 Lunch (NB: a charge of $5 will be made at the time of registration, to cover the cost of lunch, afternoon refreshments, and dinner.)

1 pm "The Role of Vexillology in Politics" by Whitney Smith

2: Break

2:15 "Salute to the United States Flag at St. Eustatius in 1776" Abraham E. Goldminz (delivered by Gary Grahl)
Saga of St. Eustatius

2:30 A talk by Rev. Hurley on his largest collection of flags in world and his use of them in teaching social science
The Flag - Effective Visual Aid in the Classroom

2:45 3:30 Break with refreshments

3:45 Business meeting (including formal motions and ones proposed from the floor; report on by-laws; election of officers; etc.)

6:15-7:15 ~~5~~ Dinner

7 Report on the International Congress of Vexillology held at Zurich; discussion of the next Congress, to be held in Boston in 1969

8 A report by P.C. Lux-Wurm (topic to be announced)

9 Color films on the history of the flags of the United States and Canada

Sunday Lunch in White Plains and informal meeting at the home of Prof. Lux-Wurm to discuss questions of mutual interest.